White House official to address 19th annual Housing Summit Participants - Monday, May 3, 2010

Peter Swire, Special Assistant to President Obama for Economic Policy on housing and housing finance, will be speaking to participants at the 19th Annual Affordable Housing Conference Summit during the opening plenary session, 9:00 -10:00 am. Congressman Chris Van Hollen, DHCD Secretary Ray Skinner and Montgomery County Executive Ike Leggett will also be addressing the audience at this time.

Mr. Swire, on leave from his position as the C. William O'Neill Professor of Law at the Moritz College of Law at Ohio State University, serves under Lawrence Summers at the National Economic Council. Prior to entering government service, while as a professor, he was a Senior Fellow at the Center for American Progress, and he served on the Obama-Biden Presidential Transition Team.

The Affordable Housing Conference of Montgomery County is pleased to welcome Mr. Swire to Montgomery County and is eagerly anticipating his remarks. The Summit venue is the Bethesda North Marriott, 5701 Marinelli Road, North Bethesda, MD.
